Facts About Reach Out Lakota

- Since our founding in 1992, we have collected over 1.8 million pounds of food and nearly 100,000 articles of clothing.
- We operate our pantry through the generous support of volunteers. Led by our CEO Lourdes Ward and Director of Development & Marketing Peyton Gravelly.
- Special programs include our Back to School Fair, Thanksgiving distribution, Christmas toys and food boxes for children and their families.

- We rely on private donations and community support, including grants from the Community Foundation of West Chester/Liberty. We are not a United Way or government agency. We depend upon private donations from companies, churches, schools, charitable organizations, and individuals to serve our community.

Reach Out Lakota puts help and hope into the hands of numerous individuals and families within the West Chester/Liberty Township areas. As the only combined food and clothing pantry in our area, we help our neighbors who need a hand in making ends meet.
